FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

His Word Today by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Jesus began speaking in the synagogue: ‘Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.’ All who were present spoke favorably of him; they marveled at the appealing discourse which came from his lips. They also asked, ‘Is this not Joseph’s son?’...At these words the whole audience in the synagogue was filled with indignation. They rose up and expelled him from the town...”

It didn't take many verses in the gospel of St. Luke to find a conversion, not to but away from Jesus. The person, admired and respected, became the challenger. He knew their hearts and was found to be too much for them. He told it like it was.

We are called to turn constantly to the Lord. We hear His word proclaimed and a teaching on a weekly basis. God's word is 'like a two edged sword' which can cut deeply, inform and reform our lives. Sometimes we do not care for what we hear, because it challenges our way of life, our pattern of thinking, or our relationship with others. But remember, what is important is our relationship with God.

As I recreate the scene in the Nazareth synagogue, I ask myself if I marvel at what I hear and how I respond.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

This weekend, January 31st begins "Catholic Schools Week." Immaculate Conception Regional Elementary School, 65 Church Street, Franklin, will host an Open House on Tuesday, February 2, 2016 at 7:00pm. Students from the school will be here at the 10:00am Mass on January 31st and information flyers will be available on the table in the hall for anyone interested in finding out more about the school.

Immaculate Conception School will hold its annual "Pot O' Gold" Tricky Tray fundraiser on Saturday, March 12, 2016 at St. Francis Church in Vernon, NJ. Doors open at 6:30 pm. Prizes include American Girl Dolls, lap top computer, TV, Fit Bit, Kitchen Aid Mixer and more. Please come and join us!

2015 WEEKLY CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS

Annual contribution statements to those who use our weekly envelopes will be sent directly from DP Murphy, Inc. – our envelope company - they will no longer be prepared in-house from the parish office so there is no need to call the Rectory office this year to request a statement. Statements will be mailed to all who utilize our envelopes.

CONSIDER A GIFT TO YOUR PARISH.....

So often when a loved one dies the family requests that in lieu of flowers donations be made to organizations that were of special significance in the life of that person – like a VFW organization or sometimes it is in thanksgiving to organizations that assisted the person during their illness – American Cancer Society, The Red Cross, St. Jude's Hospital, Karen Ann Quinlan Hospice, etc. Why not consider your parish where you and your family grew in faith – where so many special moments, in times of joy and sorrow, were celebrated – Baptisms, Weddings, First Communion, Funerals - the place where your relationship to God was especially meaningful. Generations to come may yet be grateful for your generous gift.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19

God tells Jeremiah that he was chosen to be a prophet to the nations before he had even been born. He also promises him strength and protection, providing Jeremiah does as God asks.

Second Reading: I Corinthians 12:31—13:13

Paul discusses the importance of love and claims that one who possesses any gift, but lacks love, has nothing. He explains that true love never fails, although knowledge or other talents can fail to endure in the same manner. Paul says that three things last: "faith, hope, and love, the greatest of these being love."

Gospel: Luke 4:21-30

Jesus spoke in the synagogue at Nazareth, at first appealing to all who were present. But he knew that they would be expecting him to do the things he had already done in other towns. He reminded them of other prophets who had preached and gained acceptance in foreign places instead of their home towns. This angered the people, who expelled him from town.
