FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

“I wish to know Christ and the power flowing from his resurrection; likewise to know how to share in his sufferings by being formed into the pattern of his death. Thus do I hope that I may arrive at resurrection from the dead. It is not that I have received it yet, or have already finished my course; but I am racing to grasp the prize if possible, since I have been grasped by Christ. Brothers I do not think of myself as having reached the finish line.”

What a great difference between knowing about someone and knowing that person. The first may include statistics and data, the second a relationship.

Lent has been our special moment to foster and strengthen our relationship with Jesus Christ. He reaches out to me, grasps me by the hand, holds and sustains me. I can rest, I can resist, I can reject or I can accept with eagerness and joy. Paul accepted as he continued his journey, the race.

The forgiveness Jesus offered in the gospel, after tracing in the sand, is the gift I seek, as I continue my race, my journey to Easter. The gift of mercy is being offered to me. The nonjudgmental statement of Jesus, “let the man among you who has no sin be the first to cast a stone at her.”

The Jesus I want to know is the forgiving Jesus, filled with tender mercy. He knows me, my needs, and I want to know Him.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING FOR THE YEAR OF MERCY? How about passing through a Holy Door?

Passing through a Holy Door is part of the pilgrimage that all Catholics are encouraged to make, whether during a trip to Rome, or a trip to the cathedrals or specially designated churches in and around their own dioceses. These pilgrimages come with special graces, and they allow each of us to share in the many blessings of the Holy Year. Passing through the Holy Door symbolizes our leaving the world outside and entering into the realm of salvation. As Pope St. John Paul II said, the Holy Door “evokes the passage from sin to grace which every Christian is called to accomplish”

“By crossing the threshold of the Holy Door, we will find the strength to embrace God’s mercy and dedicate ourselves to being merciful with others as the Father has been with us.” Pope Francis (Misericordiae Vultu).
(There are several Holy Doors in the surrounding area – St. Patrick’s Cathedral in NYC, Sacred Heart Basilica in Newark, The National Shrine of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel in Middletown, NY)
