EASTER

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

In this passage, Peter testifies that he and his followers saw the miracles performed by Christ, witnessed His death, and believe in His resurrection. Now they will proclaim to all that Christ is the Son of God.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Paul tells the Colossians that they will appear with Christ in glory. They should be mindful of things above rather than things on earth.

Gospel: John 20:1-9

In vivid detail, John tells us that when Mary Magdalene visited Christ's tomb, the tomb was empty. She told the apostles, who ran to the tomb, and saw the "wrappings" on the ground. The disciple who entered first "saw and believed."

Thursday Acts 3:11-26; Lk 24:35-48

Friday Acts 4:1-12; Jn 21:1-14

Saturday Acts 4:13-21; Mk 16:9-15

The Lord has Risen! Alleluia!

Easter is the celebration of Christ's resurrection from the dead. As we know from the Gospels, Jesus Christ rose from the dead on the third day following his crucifixion (which is Easter Sunday). His resurrection marks the triumph of good over evil, sin and death. It is the singular event which proves that those who trust in God and accept Christ will be raised from the dead. This dogma of our faith Saint Paul stated in this way: unless Christ rose from the dead, our faith is in vain (1 Corinthians 15:17). Through his death, Christ saved mankind from bondage to sin, and He destroyed the hold that death has on all of us; but it is His Resurrection that gives us the promise of new life, both in this world and the next.

Through the death and resurrection of Jesus, we die to our old self and sinfulness, and rise to newness that is filled with hope. We identify ourselves with the Cross, for it is in the Cross that we unite our own sufferings, pain, difficulties, addictions, and challenges to fully participate in His Resurrection.

Life will rarely be simple, but we can be hope-filled that our true destiny will be reached if we walk in the footsteps of Christ by serving Him and others. By following the way of cross in our daily life, we will grow in humility, love and hope. We can find Christ in the midst of the challenges and difficulties, and be ready to face them for we know that it is the same cross that leads to redemption.

There is inherent foundation of hope that is based in faith that God will see us through our challenges and difficulty. No matter the length of time or the degree of that challenge, we see the light at the end if we are well rooted in our faith, embrace the cross, and believe in God's love and promise of everlasting life.

It is the resurrection of Jesus that gives us the internal flame and inspiration to know that He will be here to help us. In His Resurrection Christ offered us a new life filled with grace, hope and love. After all, in dying He destroyed our death, and in rising He restored our life.

Easter is a day of great joy and solemn celebration because it represents the fulfillment of God's promises to mankind. Easter Sunday is indeed the day of great joy for Christ is risen. As hope springs eternal, may we cherish the love of the Father and the selfless acts of Jesus. May we begin anew, refresh, rejuvenated, and our faith rekindled to reconsecrate ourselves to God who is our only answer. May we think of our Lord's gift to us, and be ready to offer a gift of faith, hope and love back to Him.

On behalf of all of us here at Saint Monica, I wish you a very joyful, and Blessed Easter. Happy Easter to you all !!

Gospel Today

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord | John 20:1-9

On Easter morning Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and found it empty. She hurried to get Peter and John. Peter entered first, and when John entered he "saw and believed."

Believe... Alleluia, Alleluia!

Choose a date and an Alpha and Omega... color the flame and choose a cross to color. Cut and glue all to the candle.

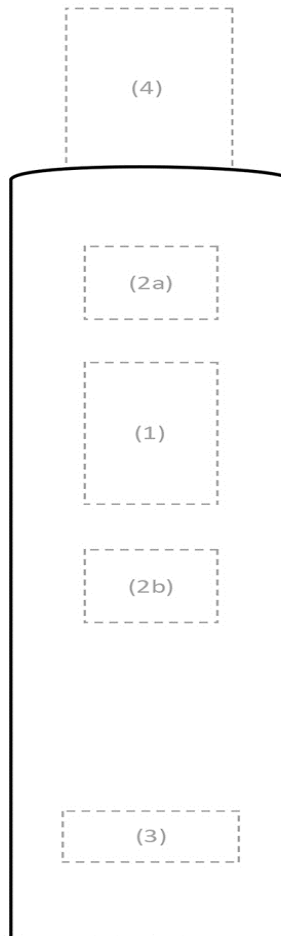

The Paschal or Easter Candle

Each year at the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday, a new fire is built and blessed. From this fire, a new Paschal Candle is lit for the first time and will be used for one year. Candle designs vary, but they are always white, the largest in the worship space and contain certain symbols - a cross, the Alpha and Omega and the date. Let's design our own candle by choosing, coloring and gluing on the designs you like. Do you see the Paschal Candle in your church?

- (1) THE CROSS - Always the central symbol
- (2) THE ALPHA AND OMEGA - Tells us God is the beginning and the end
- (3) THE CURRENT YEAR - Says God is with us here and now
- (4) THE FLAME - Reminds us Jesus is the Light of the World
- (5) Use RED to make 5 points on the cross to represent the 5 wounds of Jesus

BLESSED
EASTER TO ALL!

Pick one design from each group

*A new candle,
a new LIFE*
